

MONDAY ALMANAC

ON THE MOVE

Kate Maxwell, Ph.D. MFT has been elected Council on Aging as the regional supervisor of the senior supporter program, which is sponsored by the Sonoma County Department of Mental Health Old-Adult Services Division. Maxwell will oversee the training and supervision of volunteers and provide clinical assessments of seniors.

Kate Maxwell

Gary Weiner

Gary A. Weiner, mediator, arbitrator, collaborative lawyer and settlement counsel has also joined the Council on Aging's new office as a project development director and general counsel. Weiner is the former director of the Sonoma County Office of Alternative Dispute.

Kate Maxwell is a sales team at Frank Howard Allen Realtors, the Wine Country Group. She will work out of the Healdsburg office.

Zipper, a Los Angeles company, has expanded to the north and opened a store at Cornerstone Place in Sonoma. Zipper features exclusive artisans working in jewelry, pottery, glass, home furnishings and the fine arts.

Saskia Russell is now working at Sirah Salon & Spa, located at 161 Kentucky St., Petaluma. Russell has 14 years of industry experience and specializes in color correction, precision cuts and hair extensions.

Mendocino County Health and Human Services Agency announced the appointment of Stacey Dunn as the new public health director. Dunn previously served as interim public health director in Alaska. She has been actively involved in disaster preparedness, animal control, nursing programs, grant administration, and community collaborations.

In addition, Noel O'Neill, the current mental health director, will become director of special programs for the Health and Human Services Agency. He will be working for the agency to review and critically examine mental health programs for both best practices and fiscal sustainability.

Mary Elliott, currently deputy director of family and children's services, will accept an out-of-class assignment to become interim mental health director of operations and administration. She will be responsible for the management of mental health's day-to-day activities.

August Briggs Winery of Calistoga has named Mark R. Koppen as its general manager. Koppen is responsible for all functional areas of the winery, and its overall business growth. He brings more than 17 years wine industry experience to this position.

Ed Anderson, Kirt Zeigler, Rob Disharoon and Rob Rutherford, principals in the Santa Rosa-based law firm of Anderson, Zeigler, Disharoon, Gallagher & Gray, have been chosen by their peers to be included in the 25th anniversary edition of "The Best Lawyers in America." Anderson is listed in the specialty area of tax law. Zeigler and Rutherford are listed in the specialty area of corporate law. Disharoon is listed in the specialty area of trusts and estates.

North Bay Leadership Council announced the membership of W. Bradley Electric, Inc. and added co-owner Leslie Murphy to the board of directors. W. Bradley Electric has been in operation for over 30 years with six divisions, more than 200 employees, and an annual sales volume of $60 million.

Tom Connelly was elected to the board of the California Association of Legal Document Assistants. Connelly is president and owner of PARA-DOCS, a self-help legal document assistant company. He currently serves on CALDA's board as technology chairman, and has been a member since 2006.

Eric W. Stine has recently joined Wedbush Morgan Securities, in downtown Santa Rosa, as vice president of investments. Stine brings to Wedbush an expertise in stocks, bonds, stock options, mutual funds, annuities and life insurance products.

Submit On the Move items to Christy Palella at onthemove@pressdemocrat.com

Ray Carlson is the newly elected regional vice president of the National Exchange Club for clubs in California, Hawaii and Nevada. Carlson is president of Ray Carlson & Associates, Inc. and joined the Exchange Club in 2002 and served as president in 2006.

Marla Llewelyn and Jane Uggas received the certified staffing professional designation from the American Staffing Association. Llewelyn is branch manager of LT Staffing Service, Inc., and Uggas is a recruiter for the company.

Jacki Rector has joined the